December 2021

Without a doubt, gifts are fun. As we grow older though, we realize that we prefer presence over presents. We are grateful for the ways you show up for our community and for each other throughout the year. With your gifts of time, talent and treasure to RCCF, your presence is felt forever. If you're still not quite sure how that works, here's a simple explanation.

We put together a fun holiday playlist for you. If you're just not feeling in the spirit of the season, that's ok, too. We're sending a little extra love your way and track 8 is especially for you. Wishing you comfort and joy, friends!

CBAP Update: Report and A Call for Volunteers

A group of folks from teens to seniors (referred to as Launchers), representing diverse roles and geographies within Rush County, analyzed local data and community input for ideas to make positive change in Rush County. They embarked on the monumental task of prioritizing the community's input and came up with nine priorities. (Download the full report.)

New Rush to Action Fund Established

Thank you to everyone that has donated to the Rush to Action Fund, which supports the projects identified through the CBAP process! The total donated so far is $20,350 including the match! All donations through 3/1/2022 up to $50,000 will be matched $1 for $1. We're off to a GREAT start!

SUPPORT POSITIVE CHANGE

Grantee Update: Boys & Girls Club of Rush County

Did you know the Boys & Girls Club of Rush County is serving up to 200 youth/day?! Because of your gifts to the Community Grants and CIRCLE Funds, they're able to offer a space just for teens and STEM education to younger students that includes computer programming and robotics.

Many thanks to Alison and the Boys & Girls Club for allowing RCCF donors and staff to visit and see the good work our grants are doing! The best part was hearing from the kids themselves about what they're learning and how much they enjoy their time there. What a fantastic resource for Rush County families!

A Gift from Your RMD Can Benefit You Today and Rush County Forever

Looking for a simple way to satisfy your IRA's required minimum distribution (RMD) and make a positive difference for Rush County?

Consider making a gift with your RMD or other charitable distribution from your IRA. For donors at least 70 ½, a gift made through your IRA's plan advisor DIRECTLY to RCCF is NOT TAXED as income.
