August 2025

I scrapped the intro I wrote earlier in the week. It was about being prepared.

Well, I wasn't quite prepared when a bigger inspiration hit - in the form of a 10-year-old.

I was coming out of the Love Community Center Wednesday night, a few steps behind a boy and his grandma. He ran back to hold the door for me. Such a sweet gesture. I smiled and thanked him. As we walked to our vehicles, he turned toward his grandma grinning and exclaimed, "I LOVE this place!" My smile returned.

Because we love this place and the people in it, we prepare And we want the generations that come after us to love it, too.

Together, we make sure all our kids have supplies for the new school year. We make a will to provide for our loved ones. We donate to make sure that life in Rush County gets better with each passing year. That sounds an awful lot like love to me. Wouldn't you agree, friends?

Heading Back-to-School Fully Stocked

We had a great time sharing supplies and smiles with the kids at the Back-to-School Resource Fair & Supply Giveaway on July 16 at the Love Community Center! With 27 tables to visit, students and parents alike came away with an abundance of resources. 267 backpacks were distributed. Then add in an open house from Westminster Early Learning Academy and free day at the Rush County Recreation Center... it was a HUGE success!

New Fund: Celebrating the Payne Family's Legacy

Deb Garlock wanted to do something special for her father's 90th birthday celebration. Jim Payne has long been known for his support of the Rush County Community. She turned to RCCF for a meaningful gift.

New Fund: Supporting and Preserving Rush County Nature

Rush County Nature Preservation Fund

As a young child, Julie Osting Connolly was an outdoor girl. She spent her childhood hunting arrowheads, helping her dad with the livestock and exploring the wilderness around her house. Often accompanied by her dogs and pony, she lived what she calls a “feral childhood” deep in the woods of Mahoning Valley.

Now, she takes on a new adventure.

New Funds: Passionate RCHS Alum Makes Community Involvement a Slam Dunk

In the 1975 and 1976 school years, the RCHS boys' basketball program reached its pinnacle.

One student from the class of 1976 remembers, Basketball was everything. The intense community pride entangled with the teams' successes inspired this student to create something special.

With the help of a few others, the Student of 1976 (who wishes to remain anonymous) decided to establish the RCHS Class of 1975 Community Fund and the RCHS Class of 1976 Community Fund at RCCF.
